

Sirs, Please do not pass any new regulations that may prove harmful in the future to our local ISP company. We have come to love the close local support that sonic.net has provided over the years. I have no wish to be swallowed up by some large phone system. We already have to much big box legislation that tends to kill off the local business owners. Lets draw the line here. Thanks. Paul.
ing@sonic.net